

Contact Clean Up

Check List

- Identify where your contacts are being stored
- Identify what important fields you want to source
- Pull in important fields data from various sources and add that information to your contact sheet
- Request important field information from your contacts
- Identify how you want to handle tag groups
- Add custom fields in the CRM and add those fields as columns to your contact sheet CSV (optional)